

Judith Heckenlaible-Habig MS, LASAC (In Process)

Email: Judith@mplusmin.com
 Telephone – 602.423.5458
 PO Box 72450, Phoenix, AZ 85050

Behavioral Health Vitae

TASC – Treatment Assessment Screening Center, Inc, Phoenix, AZ August 2010 to Present
 Clinician

City of Grace, Scottsdale, AZ 2009 to Present

Pastor “On Call” (Volunteer)

Lecturer (Women’s Ministries, Marriage and Family)

Private counseling practice 2001 – Present

Institute for Faith Based Counseling 2004 – Present

Adjunct Instructor

marriagePlus Ministries, Phoenix, Arizona 1999-Present

- Established Judith’s House, Mesa, Arizona (1999) Founder and Director. A transitional home for women receiving abuse and substance recovery, street persons, prison releases, displaced home-makers, and divorced persons. Life skills instructor creating opportunities and environment that empowered recovery, success in accomplishing goals, to reconnect to themselves and others and finding purpose and meaning for their life.
- Co-Founder marriagePlus Ministries as an Arizona Non Profit Corporation in 2003. Providing pastoral counseling and teaching on relationships.
- Co-authored syllabus for Fix My Ugly Marriage Conferences
- Presenter and lecturer
- Co-authored 2 books: “Equally Yoked Together” and “Soul Ties” (Private Publish)
- Television and radio “Live with Ron and Judith”.

Church For The Nations, Phoenix, Arizona 2002 to 2008

- Active member of pastoral team for six (6) years.
- Instructor college level classes in counseling and relating fields at the International Training Center. Set and wrote curriculum and facilitated learning environment structure.

- Facilitated and established marriage and family instructional classes. Recognized and developed leadership potential and mentored replacement leadership.
- Facilitated and established substance abuse therapy group. Wrote and implemented instructional material for one year of group therapy sessions.
- Established and facilitated Assist Counseling Services a pastoral community service agency.

Value Options, Phoenix, Arizona – Case Manager. 2001 to 2003

Coordinator and monitor of consumer health services. Worked as member of clinical team to assess consumers' needs and goals. Identify funding for services, develop treatment and service plans. Monitor treatment, acts as consumer advocate, coordinates discharge plans and services and assists in crisis intervention. Progress noted activity. Home visits. Created and followed through of individual and family goal setting. Management of 50 to 72 consumer case load. One and one half years service.

Love Line Crisis Center, Minneapolis, MN – Telephone crisis counselor. 1994 - 1996

Received telephone calls, assessed immediate danger to self and others, listened, encouraged clients to reassess their situation and find options.

Education:

Cornerstone University, Doctor of Philosophy in Clinical Christian Counseling, Lake Charles, LA

Grand Canyon University, Phoenix, Arizona, Master of Science in Addiction Counseling

Northwestern College BS in Psychology, St. Paul, MN

Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena CA

Phoenix Seminary, Phoenix, AZ

Associations:

American Association of Christian Counselors

American Counseling Association

Church On The Rock International (Ordained 2003)

International Institute of Faith Based Counselors

NAADAC - The Association for Addiction Professionals

National Christian Counselor Association.